

The background of the entire page is a repeating pattern of hot air balloons in various colors (orange, blue, pink, yellow) and patterns (stripes, checkered, solid). The balloons are scattered across a light blue sky with soft, white clouds. The text is centered over this pattern.

SINGA THE BLUE BOY

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:
WWW.CREMALAYSIA.COM

Chapter 1

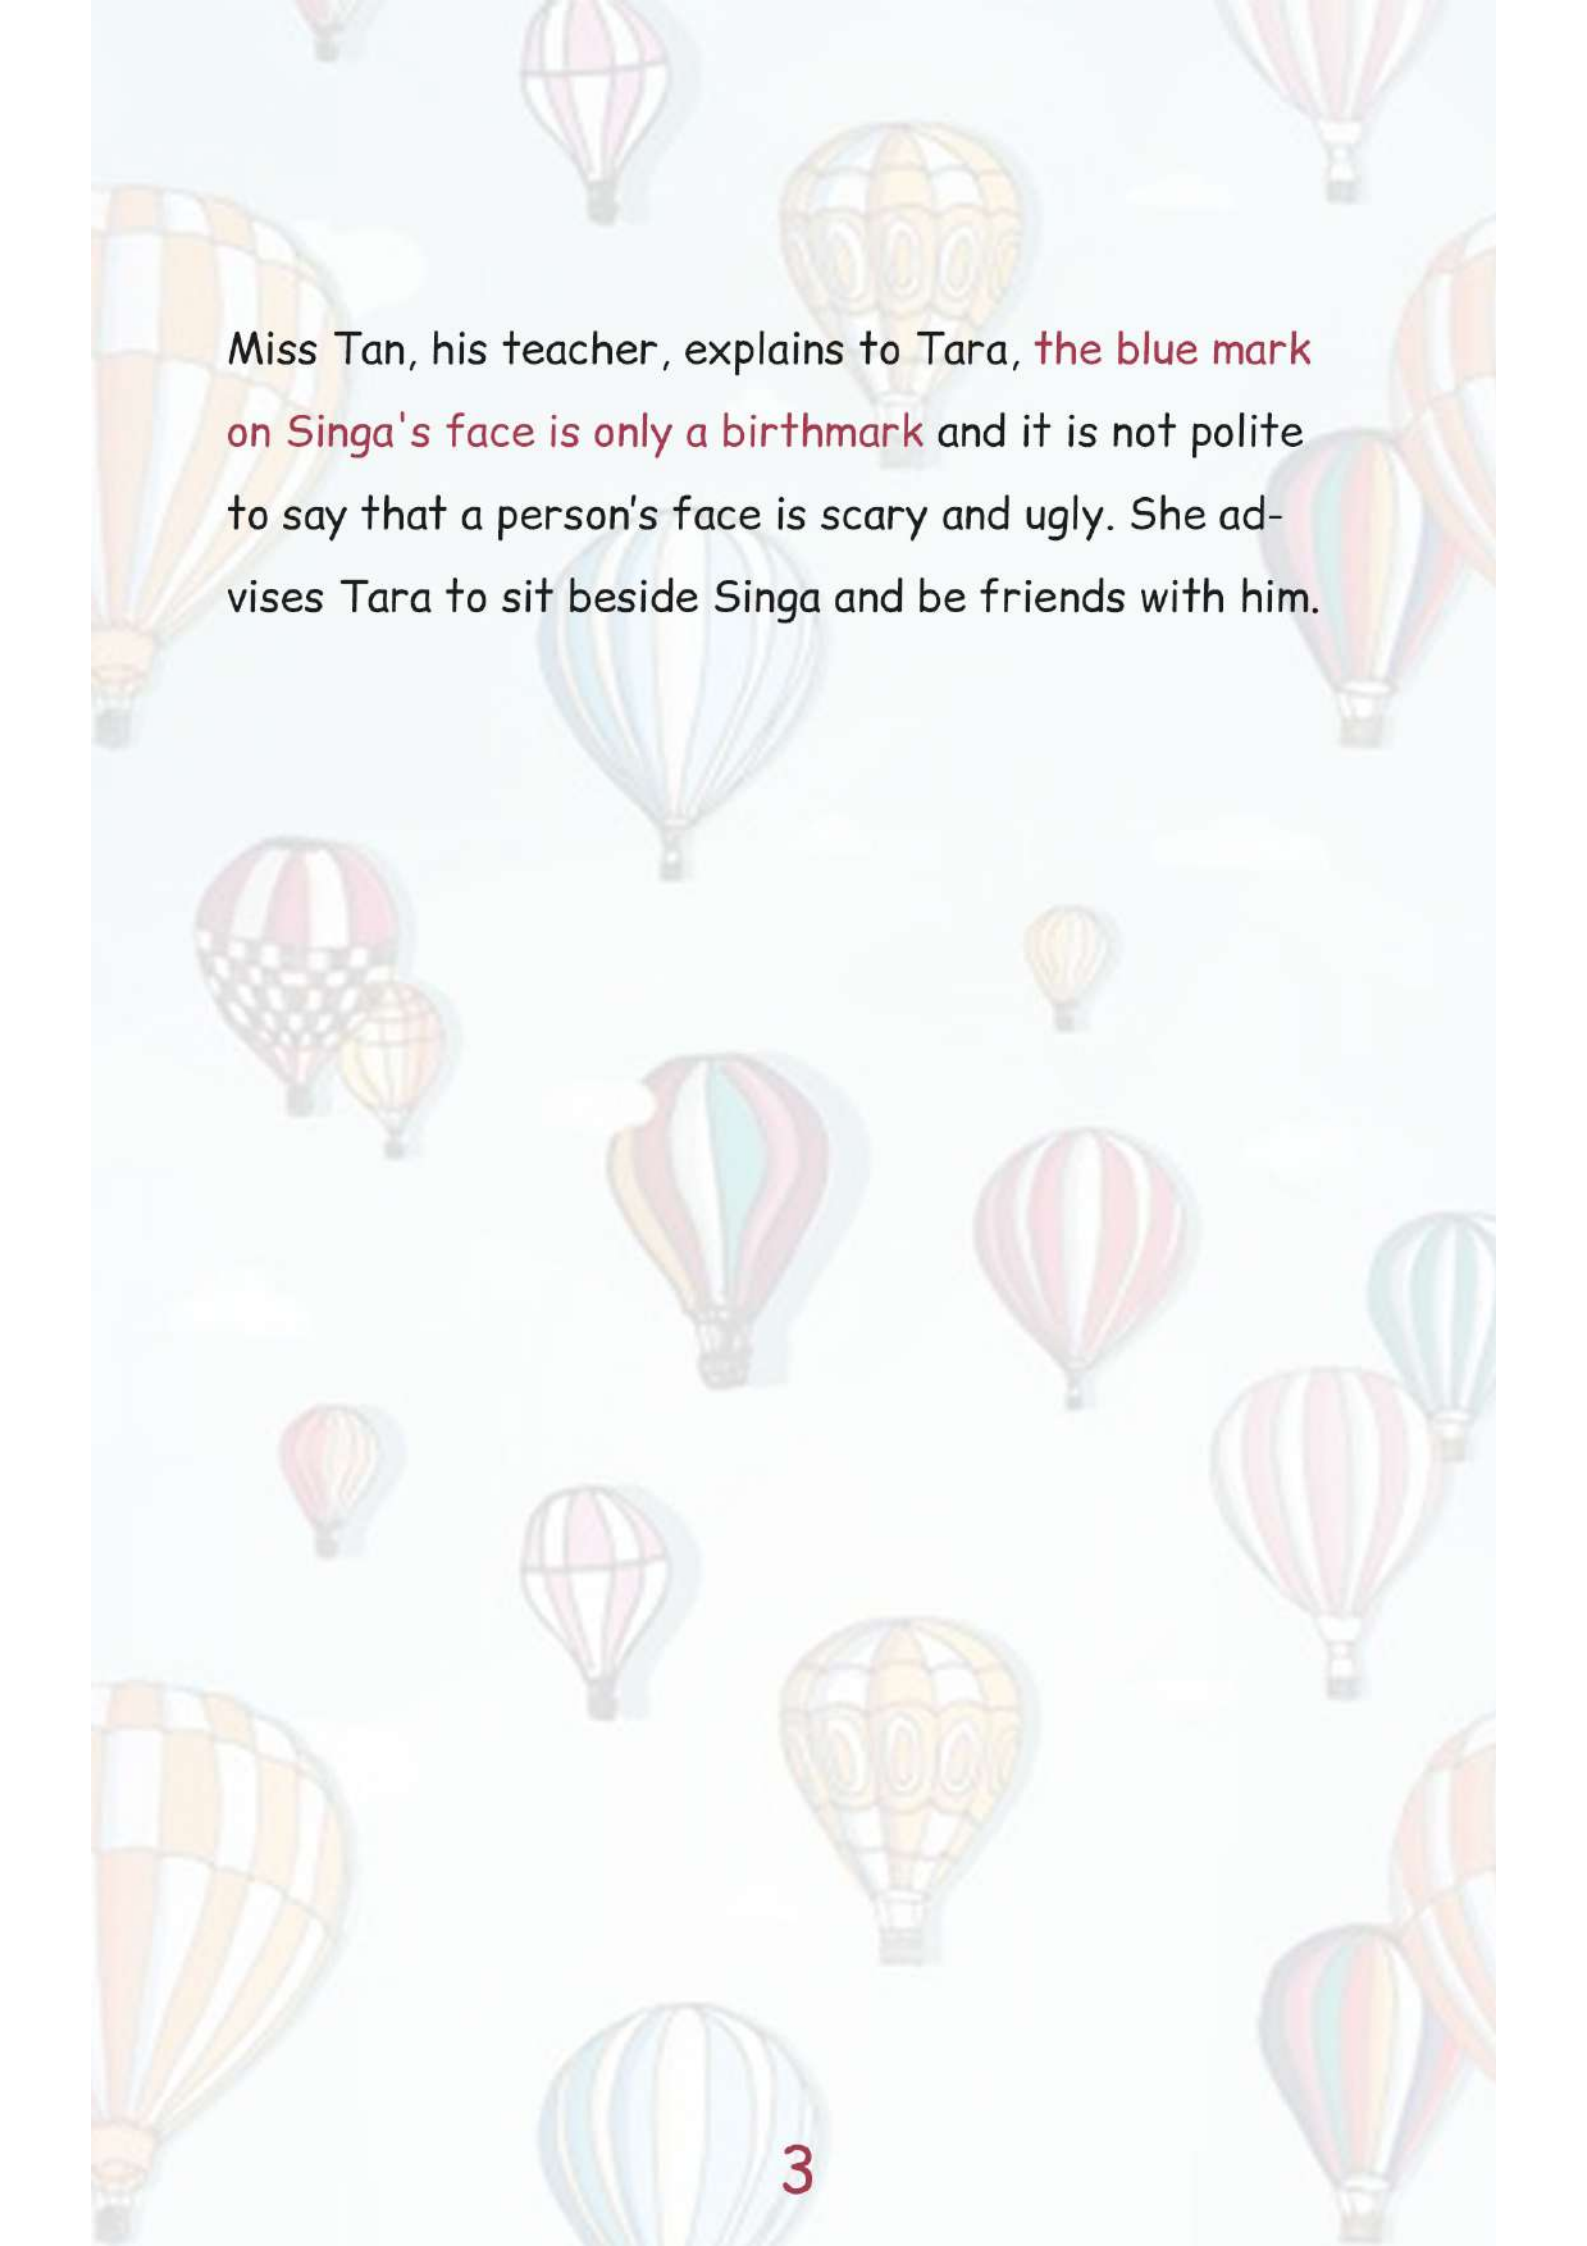

Singa goes to School

He is going to school. It is his first day at school. His parents bought him a power rangers school bag. He carries his school bag with great pride and goes to school with his mother. He wonders why all the children and people are staring at him in school. Is it because of his power rangers bag, he wonders? His mother leaves him in the classroom with a bear hug and kiss. She tells him to enjoy learning and assures him that school is going to be fun and joyful

Singa is greeted by his teacher, Miss Tan, with a big smile. He is seated with Tara, a girl wearing spectacles. Singa says hello to Tara. Tara doesn't say hello. She looks away. She tells Miss Tan that she does not want to sit with Singa because Singa looks scary and ugly. He has a blue patch on his face which is a birthmark. Singa's happy and excited face turns sad and disappointed when Tara said his face looks ugly and scary.

The background of the page is a light blue sky filled with numerous hot air balloons of various colors and patterns, including stripes, checks, and solid colors. The balloons are scattered across the page, creating a whimsical and cheerful atmosphere.

Miss Tan, his teacher, explains to Tara, the blue mark on Singa's face is only a birthmark and it is not polite to say that a person's face is scary and ugly. She advises Tara to sit beside Singa and be friends with him.

Chapter 2

Singa makes friends

Singa's sad face turns to be happy and cheerful again. Tara says sorry to Singa for being impolite. Singa shakes hand with Tara and says it is okay. He tells Tara people do stare at him and some ask his mother or father why his face has a blue patch. But Singa has gotten used to the blue patch. Tara tells Singa that she has never seen a boy with a blue patch on his face. Ali who is sitting behind Singa greets him with a salam. Singa is very happy and delighted that he is making more friends. Miss Tan asks all the children in her class to be friends. She tells them to introduce themselves and get to know one another. She tells all her class children that they must respect one another regardless of their gender, race, faith or religion. She says no one should make fun of another like calling out names meant to insult or offend. She also says no one should hurt one another. The bell rings. It is time for recess.

Singa's mother gave him a tupperware full of biscuits and told Singa to share with his friends. She also gave him money to buy chocolates or sweets if Singa wants to. Singa gladly offers his biscuits to all his friends. While he is eating with his friends in the canteen, a big sized boy by the name of Judas approaches him.

Judas asks Singa whether Singa has any money. Singa tells Judas that he has money that his mother had given him. Judas tells Singa to give the money to him.

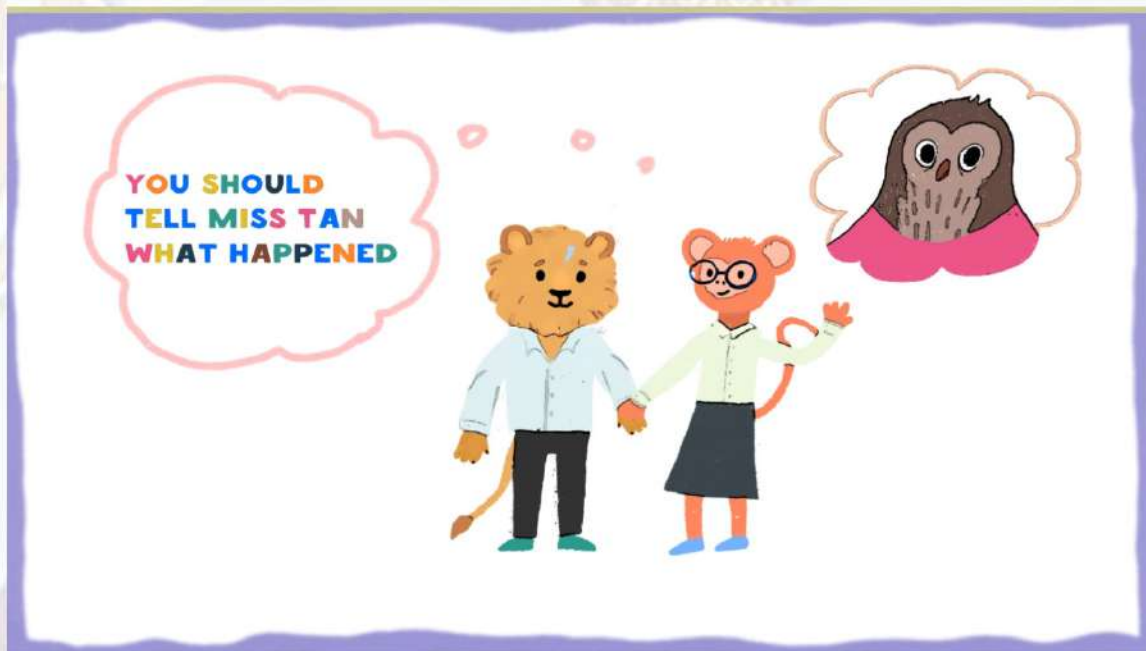

He mocks Singa to be a freak and calls Singa the ugly blue boy. Singa does not know what to do. He is frightened. Judas continues to mock Singa. Tara who is sitting beside Singa starts to cry because she is frightened too.

Chapter 3

Singa is bullied

The recess bell rings, tring... tring... Singa and his friends want to enter their classroom. Judas holds Singa by his shoulder and demands for the money. Very politely Singa tells Judas to leave him alone. Singa warns Judas that he will report Judas misbehaviour to the teacher. As Singa tries to leave, Judas holds back Singa's shirt. Singa loses balance and falls. Instead of helping Singa, Judas continues to mock Singa calling him a freak. He taunts Singa. As Singa is getting up, Judas pushes him down and demands money. Singa gives Judas the money his mother gave him. Judas warns Singa not to tell anyone about Judas. The disturbed and frightened Singa agrees willingly. As soon as Judas leaves, Singa walks to his classroom.

Tara walks beside him. She tells Singa that Singa must tell Miss Tan what had happened. Miss Tan seeing Tara had cried and Singa looking very disturbed, approaches them. She asks them what had happened. Singa relates to Judas. He tells Miss Tan, how he was bullied, and Judas took his money. Singa tells Miss Tan that he is very frightened that Judas is going to bully him again. Miss Tan comforts Singa and Tara.

Chapter 4

Singa fights back

Miss Tan advises her class children to report to her if anyone bullies them. She tells them to shout and call for help if the bully hurts them or threatens them. She tells her class children to shout as loud as possible like the roaring of a lion to ask for help if anyone hurts them or harms them in any way. She tells Singa to be brave and not to fear the bully. She tells Singa to go and freshen up

As Singa is walking out of the washroom, he bumps into Judas the bully. Judas upon seeing Singa, taunts him to be ugly and a freak. He warns Singa not to relate his bullying and extortion for money.

Remembering what Miss Tan said, he shouts for help so loud like the roaring of a lion!!

Teachers hearing Singa's cries for help comes running out of their respective classrooms. Judas is cornered and is handed over to Mr Pillay, the discipline master of the school

Chapter 5

Singa is a happy boy

Singa is so happy and relieved. He is not frightened anymore of any bullies. He realizes by being brave, no one will bully him. He will always remember what Miss Tan told him and his classmates, that is, shout for help and roar like a lion to frighten the bully and alert for help. Singa has made his classmates very proud. All his classmates are his friends now. Tara adores Singa and they are best of friends. Miss Tan is also very proud of Singa. Miss Tan appoints Singa as the class monitor. Nobody taunts him anymore. Singa the blue boy is now known as Singa the brave boy.

Thank You For Reading

What do you do if you are a victim on social media/school?

1. Report to the teacher/ counsellor at school
2. Share with your parents/ family members
3. Seek help via:
 - A) Sistem Aduan SISPAA (03-88849325)
 - B) Call/WhatsApp (014-800 9325)
 - C) Talian Kasih (15999)
 - D) Email (adubuli@moe.gov.my)

-End-